

Mike Gedzun grew up playing first with the Homewood-Flossmor Cardinals, then with the Deerfield Falcons, and the Chicago Hawks winning a state title at the PeeWee level. Spent 3 years on the varsity team at Mt. Carmel High School, winning three Kennedy Cups, 2 state titles, capturing top goaltender of the Catholic League and an all-state nomination.

Mike then proceeded to play junior A in the NAHL for the Chicago Young Americans. Then he ventured out to Fresno and San Diego California to play where his career was abruptly ended by injury. This season will be coach Gedzun's fourth season with the Huskies and in addition to being the Huskies Goalie Director he will also begin his third year as the Bantam Major Central States Head Coach.
